Expertise

Lotta Hilgers advises domestic and foreign private individuals and companies, whether they are transferees or transferors, with cross-border transactions in the field of asset transfers and particularly with regard to inheritance matters. She has an extensive know-how in connection with real estate and contractual arrangements regarding property transfers both onerous and by way of gift. Additionally, Lotta Hilgers advises in the field of condominium, renting and leasing of business premises and residential property. Moreover she has many years of experience in corporate law and M&A transactions.

Furthermore, Lotta Hilgers regularly gives talks on real-estate and inheritance-law-related issues, and is an author of numerous publications in the field of private international law. She is co-author of the Spain chapter of the “Manual on international limited liability company law” published by zerb 2016.

She is member of the Spanish-German Association of Jurists, the German Association of Inheritance Law and Asset Succession – DVEV and the project group Inheritance-Law of the German Lawyer Association.

Background

Lotta Hilgers completed in 2005 her law studies at the University of Hamburg and spent a year at the University of Buenos Aires. Afterwards she started working at a renowned law firm in Hamburg. After moving to Spain and being licensed to practice as a Spanish lawyer, she has been working since 2008 at our law firm. Since 2015 she is its manager and since 2016 partner at Lozano, Hilgers & Partner SLP.
