Press release

Lozano Schindhelm has incorporated Dr. Isabell Büschel as Of Counsel in its office based in Madrid.

Dr. Büschel studied Law at the Universities of Cologne and Aix-Marseille, where she obtained her doctorate degree on a topic in European Union law. Later she carried out post-doctoral research at the Universities of Aix-Marseille and Basel, completing her scientific training with practical experience in prestigious international business law firms in Paris and Cologne, as well as in the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Court of Justice of the European Union.

Dr. Büschel is specialized in advising clients operating in Europe, mainly in the areas of public law and European Union law, in matters related to the protection of the environment and health, as well as in issues related to energy, transport and infrastructure. She screens and analyzes European legislation, national implementation measures and case law in all areas of EU law related to fundamental rights and sustainable development. Her activities include compliance studies of national laws and regulations with the EU regulatory framework, as well as country reports and legal advice on complex cross-border situations. Dr. Isabell Büschel lectures and publishes in specialized magazines on a regular basis. She is also co-author of several studies commissioned by the European institutions (EU Parliament, Commission).

Since 2014 Dr. Büschel works as a consultant in environmental, energy and transport law (Madrid and Brussels). She is a member of the Franco-German Lawyers' Association and the Coalition for Higher Ambition, an institution supported by the European Council for an Energy Efficient Economy (eceee).
